

Camp EduAdventures Counselor-in-Training (CIT) Job Description

Camp EduAdventures is excited to offer an opportunity to apply for a Counselor-in-Training (CIT) position. CIT applicants should be rising 7th through 12th graders who enjoy working with children as well as have a leadership quality that can be used to assist both Camp Teachers and Senior Camp Counselors. Being a CIT is a voluntary position and the hours worked could be used to fulfil school community service hours. It is also an amazing chance to get first-hand experience working in a fun and educational environment that will benefit Camp EduAdventures as we are seeking youthful staff members who are able to relate to our campers!

An applying CIT should be:

- someone who is responsible and mature.
- self-motivated; who does not wait for instructions, rather asks for instructions.
- prepared to work behind the scenes to help create the camp experience.
- a leader, who is able to work with all ages, and help organize them too.
- excited to not just participate in activities and lessons, but assist in presenting them too.

If any of these descriptions sound like you then you might be a perfect candidate for our CIT position! If so, you should apply for our position through the CIT application linked below:
