

Men of Color Network Application of Interest

The mission of Project IMPACT is to increase the representation of males from racially and ethnically diverse backgrounds in teaching and respond to persistent opportunity gaps faced by young men from diverse backgrounds.

As part of the program, students receive mentoring from current male teachers and education leaders. The connection between mentors and Project IMPACT students is essential to student success.

Procedures for application to the Men of Color Network is as follows:

1. Applicants must complete a separate online application, specifically to the IMPACT program, housed on the following link:

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScjVshqWp2yQkL9CEVdpd68bdRgqWNIJ8MVTYT6LoIp80oReQ/viewform>

2. Following submission of your applications, a follow-up conversation MAY be required to complete the application process. This conversation is meant to ascertain the potential for mentorship and provide an opportunity for clarification of any information shared on the application.

NOTE: If you have any questions or issues with the application process, please contact ProjectIMPACT@rowan.edu with your full name and questions on hand.
